Row over money district council claims developer owes continues

ANDERS LARSSON

anders@viewnews.co.uk

A DISPUTE between East Devon District Council (EDDC) and Wainhomes over a massive amount of planning infrastructure money for Axminster remains unresolved.

It is not known if the dispute still involves the original sum of more than £660,000 or if part of the bill has been settled.

Wainhomes claims that "substantial amounts" have been paid, but EDDC would only say that discussions are ongoing.

Wainhomes built the Millbrook Meadows estate off Chard Road in three phases and planning permission came with what is known as a Section 106 agreement, meaning the developer undertook to pay a certain amount towards infrastructure/amenities.

The dispute became public in July when Axminster town councillor and former mayor Jeremy Walden told a meeting: "I have spent hours on the phone to EDDC planning and the Section 106 officer concerning Wainhomes."

"I think in March, EDDC issued a bill to Wainhomes for Section 106 monies due for play recreation and also money for drainage just shy of half a million pounds."

"Unsurprisingly, their response was less than enthusiastic and those of us who have dealt with Wainhomes for many, many years would expect that."

"The EDDC legal department have issued a formal letter to Wainhomes."

EDDC confirmed the dispute and said the sum was in excess of £660,000 towards infrastructure to serve the development including the provision of school places, sports facilities, works to the sewerage network, children's play areas and public art.

An EDDC spokesperson said at the time: "These contributions have not been paid and the council has been in communication with Wainhomes for some time over this issue and is now considering further formal legal action to secure the required infrastructure."

There was no further public communication for some time.

When Pulman's View asked if the matter had been resolved, EDDC issued a brief statement on December 20th, saying: "The council is still in discussion with Wainhomes regarding the payment of their obligations."

Wainhomes, however, replied by saying: "Substantial sums have already been paid across in Section 106 payments."

"There still remains a query over the payment required by South West Water (SWW) for the drainage contribution, which should be paid to SWW not EDDC."

"The original sum in the S106 for the sewerage network contribution, has been significantly reduced and on receipt of a revised invoices from SWW and EDDC we shall be pleased to clear the outstanding payments." EDDC said it did not wish to comment further.

Axminster mayor Cllr Paul Hayward explained that the town council is not directly involved, but receives updates from EDDC.

He said: "The town council shares the exasperation of EDDC in that the matter has not been resolved in a timely fashion."

"The funds could have been spent in Axminster rather than sitting in the developer's bank account."

Curry night raises £1,300

A CURRY and quiz night raised more than £1,300 for Axminster Food Bank and Axminster Cancer Support Group.

Axminster Health & Wellbeing Centre, which is a charity, held the event in the Guildhall in November.

Centre manager Aynsley Jones said: "We would like to thank the whole community for the support."

"The night, which was attended by over 100 people, was a great success."

"Spice and Rice supplied the curry, Tesco the fruit, and our very own mayor, Paul Hayward, was our quiz master."

Christmas fun at Lyme Bay Winery

■ STAFF at Lyme Bay Winery in Shute, near Axminster, put on their warmest, wackiest and most wonderful festive woollies to raise money for Save the Children as part of Christmas Jumper Day on December 16th. Sporting a fine Christmas pullover himself, MD James Lambert said: "Christmas is such a busy period for us, so it's great to have a day to fully embrace the Christmas spirit and raise money for an excellent cause."

NEW YEAR MESSAGE from East Devon District Council leader COUNCILLOR PAUL DIVANI 'We must evolve from being service providers and instead become enablers'

RELOCATION and evolution of efficient, innovative services remains a priority for district council, East Devon Council leader Cllr Paul Diviani, pictured right, has vowed in his New Year message

Cllr Diviani said: "We are improving and we will continue to improve in order to provide the people of East Devon with the best possible services.

"The next four years will continue to be challenging for public services and local communities.

"East Devon is no different from other local authorities and we will continue to face financial pressures as central government reduces our funding and the demands on our services increases.

"The challenge we face is no longer how to do more for less, but instead how we can deliver our services in new and innovative ways.

"We must evolve from being service providers and instead become enablers, which includes helping to support communities to come together so they can do more for themselves.

"We will continue to transform service delivery with the benefit of new technologies and we will also continue to make sure our services are always improving through our 'systems thinking' approach.

"We will also be focusing on a more commercial approach to delivering our services, but at the same time we will ensure that this is balanced against providing value and full benefit to our communities.

"Through our relocation to Honiton and Exmouth we will seize every opportunity to improve the delivery and accessibility of services whenever and wherever possible, yet at the same time we must deliver the £2.6m savings that central government require us to make.

"Our ambition is to be an outstanding council, which works together with local people to create great value services and an outstanding community, economy and environment for East Devon, both now and for future generations.

"Everything we do is aimed at making East Devon a place where people want to live and work, as well as a top destination for visitors to come and enjoy."

All residents received information about the seasonal changes to the recycling and waste collections earlier this month and the information is available on their website at <http://east-devon.gov.uk/recycling-and-rubbish/christmas-collections-2016/>

A spokesperson for EDDC said: "East Devon residents will be able to recycle Christmas wrapping paper this year, as they have been able to in previous years.

"However, as is normal practice, we are unable to accept shiny, metallic, plastic or glittered wrapping paper for recycling as this type of material cannot be accepted by our recycling mill."

MP launches new group for farmers

EAST Devon Farmers' Group (EDFG) was formally launched by local MP Neil Parish, chairman of the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (EFRA) Select Committee.

The inaugural meeting took place on December 9th in Colyton.

EDFG joins a network of 49 groups across England covering over 200,000 hectares of farmland and woodland under the Natural England-funded Farm Facilitation Scheme programme.

Mike Ellingham, retired NFU Regional Advisor and former AONB Partnership member, will be chairing the group and said: "I am pleased that the AONB team have secured this funding with our partners.

"It will provide opportunities to bring the local farming community together to discuss and develop modern farming and environmental issues that affect all their farms at a critical time."

EDFG has a committee of local farmers and woodland owners.

They will be assisted by Roland Stonex of Farming and Wildlife Advisory Group

South West, Mike Symes from the Devon Greater Horseshoe Bat project and Pete Youngman from the AONB team.

Farmers signing up to the Farm Facilitation Scheme will receive a 20 per cent uplift on their application score for mid-tier Countryside Stewardship and will be eligible to attend free training and advisory workshops.

The group is open to farmers and woodland owners in the Coly Valley, Branscombe, Southleigh, Offwell and Shute areas.

Any farmers or woodland owners wishing to join the group should contact Pete Youngman, AONB Project Officer, by emailing edfg@east-devonaonb.org.uk

TOP TABLE: Axminster Rotary President John Foulkes entertains his guests at the Christmas lunch and, below, presents a cheque to Debbie Humberstone for The Project

Rotary Christmas lunch provides support for The Project charity

THERE was festive spirit in abundance at The Rotary Club of Axminster's annual charity Christmas lunch on December 16th.

Almost 100 club members and invited guests enjoyed a meal, speeches and entertainment.

The profit raised from the meal and the raffle enabled the club to present The Project founder Debbie Humberstone with a cheque for £250.

This charity had been selected because of "the valuable work it does to help young people in the local community on very limited funds".

Based in Axminster and Chard, The Project provides support for young people aged 13-24, with emotional and mental health issues.

The Project also provides support to parents and carers, as well as working in schools and the wider community to raise awareness around mental illness.

A short but powerful address by Ms Humberstone, who started the charity when her teenage daughter experienced severe mental health issues, had quite an impact on those attending.

After the lunch, Ms Humberstone, said: "I am very grateful to The Rotary Club of Axminster, and to everyone who attended the Christmas lunch, for so generously supporting us."

"I am also grateful to have been given a chance to speak at the event, highlighting the importance of the work we do and raising awareness around mental ill health and the challenges facing local young people."

After the meal entertainer James Lauchlan sang Christmas songs before involving the diners in a spirited role playing rendition of the Twelve Days of Christmas.

Richard hangs up his camera in Axminster

■ NEW DIRECTION: Richard says goodbye to colleagues. The cake was made by Rosie Beer.

AFTER 16 years as company photographer at Axminster Tools & Machinery, Richard Hedington has decided to hang up his camera for the time being and carve out a new path as an author and illustrator.

Having also relocated to Plympton with his partner Rachel to be closer to family and grandchildren, Richard felt the time was right to change direction.

One of Richard's many talents is creative writing and he has self-published a series of children's books which can equally be enjoyed by adults.

The principal character in Richard's stories is Henry the Hedgegnome – a character Richard created many years ago while still at school.

Henry remained in hibernation while Richard worked as a photographer but now he will be developing Henry's adventures and making every effort to become as popular and well known as children's author-illustrator as Raymond Briggs or Nick Butterworth.

Richard said: "After 16 years creating photos and videos for Axminster Tools & Machinery, the time has come to do a spot of drawing and colouring in.

"Some may view giving up a good job to write children's books as some sort of mid-life crisis. Having first drawn Henry the Hedgegnome when I was a child, I prefer to view it as finally fulfilling my destiny."

Staff from Axminster Tools & Machinery presented Richard with leaving gifts on December 15th and wished him well on his new journey.

■ FESTIVE GREETINGS FROM AROUND THE WORLD: Axminster Community Primary Academy did not stage a nativity play as such, instead putting on a Christmas café with songs from all over the world. The group photographed had a Danish message, Glaedelig Jul (Merry Christmas).

Return of fountain lights?

THE LIGHTS on the Jubilee Fountain in Trinity Square, Axminster, could be repaired.

Attending a town council meeting, a member of the public asked if it would be possible for the lights to be brought back into working order.

Councillors resolved to investigate and agreed that an assessment of the condition of the structure should be undertaken by a suitably qualified professional.

Town clerk Hilary Kirkcaldie was asked to find out what the cost had been when the structure was refurbished some 20 years ago.

Caravan blaze deliberate

A DERELICT caravan was set alight just off the A35 in Raymonds Hill.

Fire appliances from Axminster, Charmouth and Lyme Regis were mobilised to a report of a fire just off the A35 at about 5.50pm on Monday, December 12th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The cause of the fire was deliberate, which resulted in the vehicle being severely damaged by fire."

Festive boost for RBL funds

SEATON Royal British Legion's Christmas Draw and Table Sale raised in the region of £800 at the Methodist Church Hall.

Branch president Ray Evans was very pleased and praised fellow branch members for their hard work and members of the public for attending and spending their money.

Download a charity calendar

A SEATON-based artist has decided to make to his 2017 calendar available online, hoping charities will benefit.

Simon Wellington, co-owner of Axe Cliff Golf Club, said: "I have decided to put my calendar online this year for charity.

"I normally do quite well out of it but have been very touched by a lot of the things going on at home and in the world this year."

The idea is built on trust as there is no paying mechanism on his website, but Mr Wellington hopes that anyone who downloads the calendar will make a £5 donation to a charity of their choice.

He started making his annual calendar almost 10 years ago, the first one being part of an exhibition he staged in Wells Cathedral.

This year's version includes paintings from Seaton, Lyme Regis, Bristol, Clevedon and more.

Download instructions are available online at www.simonwellington.co.uk, and copies are also available at Axe Cliff Golf Club.

Grenade found in river

A ROYAL Navy Bomb Disposal unit was called to Seaton after a hand grenade was spotted in River Axe.

Beer Coastguard Rescue Team assisted the bomb disposal team along with the police.

They were called at 10.51am on Thursday, December 15th and a spokesperson for Beer Coastguard Rescue Team said: "A hand grenade was seen at low water in the River Axe at Seaton.

"The item was confirmed as a Second World War hand grenade and was made safe by the explosive ordnance disposal team before they removed it from the river bed and took it away for disposal.

"It was still in reasonable condition considering it has been in the mud for more than 70 years."

Students visit Shelterbox charity base

A GROUP of GCSE Geography students from Honiton Community College were recently invited to visit Shelterbox in Truro, to see how the vital operation is run.

Shelterbox is an emergency aid charity supported solely by fundraising through the Rotarian Society and individual donations.

The Government provides no assistance to Shelterbox. During the visit students were given a brief on the ethos of the organisation and their objectives as an aid charity.

Honiton students were taught about the logistics of an aid organisation and delivery of critical aid in very short periods of time.

A spokesperson for the school said: "We all enjoyed demonstrations from the Shelterbox volunteers of the type of emergency equipment sent out to disaster zones."

"Much of the equipment's donated from companies who have supported Shelterbox since its very inception in 2000."

"We were also given a rare treat of exploring the four types of tents sent to disaster zones, learning about design, construction and use in remote inhospitable locations. Some emotive stories were told by the staff of aid volunteers facing the huge physical and emotional challenges on the ground."

"Students showed great empathy and thoughtfulness towards the delicate nature of disaster relief, human hardship and loss of life."

"A truly memorable visit enjoyed by all. Thank you to Shelterbox for arranging our visit."

■ A GROUP of students from Honiton Community College recently visited the base of operations for aid charity Shelterbox in Cornwall

■ HONITON Lions have donated £300 towards a new lifeboat station – in Cornwall.

The money was raised by Cornish Lion David Rickard, who is known locally where the lifeboat station will be built in Newlyn

David raised the money by selling books throughout the year and was on hand when the presentation was made to lifeboat station fundraising chairman, Eric Taylor, and RNLI community fundraising manager, Ben Bowskill.

David, 75, has already raised more than £4,000 for the RNLI in memory of his late mother, Mary Rickard.

He has done this through working local paper rounds and saving the pay and tips to give to charity. David has been fundraising for more than 10 years, and has already visited the current Penlee Lifeboat Station in Newlyn twice. He will be returning in January to present another cheque for £1,500.

Brexit, populism and sacrifices

■ WITH reference to the 6th December issue, I would first of all say how delighted I am that Derek Sturch is still writing his ditties. The metering leaves something to be desired, but at least I can guarantee that my day will get off to a good start with the amusement he provides.

Not the same can be said, however, of the letter from Nibby David, to which I take exception. In the third paragraph, reference is made to a long list of what lives were supposedly sacrificed for and which, by inference, we have given up post referendum. As far as I recall, all were freely available prior to becoming members of the Common Market, along with all the freedoms of work, study and marriage that have, the letter states, now been denied to the younger generation. The only change will be that they will no longer be spoon-fed, but will have to become as independent and adventurous as my generation and will continue to have to show a passport when crossing borders.

I have no knowledge as to Nibby David's personal involvement in, or knowledge of, the Second World War, but from what my father recounted to me, he did not spend nearly four years behind barbed wire (including time in Stalag Luft 111), after having been shot down following a number of missions, for the reasons suggested in the letter printed. He did all that, to help prevent the German domination of this, his country and of Europe. When observing the continued political and economic power wielded by Chancellor Merkel within the EU, the sacrifice would have been wasted had the vote not been for Leave.

Now it would seem that populism and populist are being used as the new insult, instead of racist, when describing those of us who chose freedom back in June this year. As far as the racist tag is concerned, then I am sure that my Parsee goddaughter would be delighted to debate that on my behalf. However, I would draw the attention of the readers of this newspaper to the following Oxford English Dictionary definition: "Populist (noun or adjective): a member or adherent of a political party seeking to represent the interests of ordinary people, or: a person who supports or seeks to appeal to the concerns of ordinary people."

Surely something all MPs should aspire to!

As defined by Princeton University, the following: "Populism (noun): The political doctrine that supports the rights and powers of the common people in their struggle with the privileged elite".

Obviously, those in the media, in politics (including our recently-departed Prime Minister) and also others who so 'liberally' use these as an insult do not comprehend their meaning.

ROGER GREAVES, Thorncombe

■ IT must be nice to rewrite history, but it is most definitely not a good idea.

The sacrifice made by millions of our countrymen and women over two world wars was to deliver us from totalitarian slavery, courtesy of a nation (Germany) which had caused, by its naked aggression, three major conflicts since its creation in 1871, in just 68 years. Quite a record! The Nazi (National Socialist) plan for their Third Reich was the 'Europäische Wirtschaft Gemeinschaft' which translates as the European Economic Community. By their own admission the supporters of the current EU project regard themselves as the Fourth Reich. This is a Babylonian-inspired project (the Nazis were obsessed with the occult) and the EU Parliament building in Strasbourg was constructed to resemble the unfinished Tower of Babel.

As a result of deliberate and treasonable lies made by Edward Heath we were deceived into joining the EEC, ruled completely by unelected commissars.

Our country owes its greatness to being a Christian nation, and not one governed by Babylonian/ Napoleonic law.

This is the reason we voted to leave. No other factor even begins to surmount this. No other nation would have put up with as much abuse as we have over the last 40 years from an unelected and secretive cabal and we are overjoyed that this ruling by fascist tendencies in Europe is coming to an end.

A EDWARDS, Seaton

■ FOR Remainers, Remoaners and Brexiteers Since June it's been a turbulent year.

But no matter which side of the fence we're sat It's the time of the year to forget about that.

Let's all embrace the days ahead,

Grasping the spirit of Christmas instead.

Time for the family, yours and mine.

Memories of friends who come to mind.

Thoughts for those who are left alone

Reliving their lives in an empty home.

Pity for children stripped of their youth

By disease, starvation and mans' twisted use.

Sorrow for millions, their freedom denied,

Caught up in the carnage of wars' bloody tide.

Regret for the suffering throughout our World

That we see every night, yet become quite inured

To horrors that make our own problems absurd.

Perhaps some day this turmoil will cease

And all the World's children at last live in Peace.

Though I suppose when the New Year comes

It's back to the EU, NHS and Trump.

DEREK STURCH, Honiton

Axminster traffic

■ MAY I respond to last week's letter about safety in Axminster?

Axminster must be the only town with a 20-mile speed limit running through it which no drivers adhere to, also surrounding roads of 30-mile speed limits.

Where are the speed repeater signs, as required by law?

The drivers are crazy, ducking and diving, weaving in and out, speeding, some on their mobile phones. They drive like madmen. Don't worry about the pedestrians or children. It seems drivers would rather knock you over and kill you than slow down or stop! Axminster has the most idiotic, unsafe road system. It needs more crossings for pedestrians.

Beautiful Axminster town spoiled by car fumes, speeding and ignorance. Take five minutes just to stand and watch them all. Did I hear someone mention police? No, not in our town, never. But then one gets used to this as we've always been the most neglected town in the whole of Devon.

You cannot tell me the council aren't aware of the problems. How come Seaton has a no-traffic zone? We want one!

Sorry, Axminster, you definitely are at the back of the queue, lost and forgotten – just as our children are here.

NEW YEAR New You

What's your New Year's resolution?

Slimming World

IT'S NOT JUST FOR THE LADIES!

WELL I didn't expect this! Slimming world is for Men too!

I joined slimming world with my sister-in-law and a friend. At first they had pressured me into joining with them. I really wasn't sure, I had heard of these diet things, rabbit food and such (manly grunt!!). The reality was much different - I soon found that Slimming World was more about showing you foods as they are. How to combine them into great, large, healthy meals that didn't compromise on taste. It showed me that some small changes could make a big difference, and I could also treat myself as long as I kept an honest eye on how much I was treating myself.

Unfortunately throughout my life I have mistreated myself with foods I believed comforted me but in truth left me sluggish and somewhat hollow. I had been overweight through my late teen years and onwards. I never let anyone know how much this actually affected every part of my life, confidence, romance and health. Maybe I never truly admitted this to myself, it seemed easier to have another beer, pie or doughnut and get a few moments of joy, but moments was all it was.

I met my gorgeous wife 7 years ago - a fantastic and energetic woman. I will never forget our first date, we decided to meet in Glastonbury and walk up to the top of the tor. Needless to say I puffed and panted all the way to... half way... and had to stop and get my breath back! Then I panted my way to the top. I remember thinking 'what must she think of me! I blamed the cigarettes as I smoked at the time (not any more) but it was my size that really kept me reaching the top without stopping. Thankfully this wonderful woman saw through the flab to the man inside, thank goodness. Claire never pushed me to change and I thank her for that, but I knew I had to get fitter to keep up with her. I slowly increased my fitness but there was always an excuse - work, nights out, etc not to drop my weight.

Slimming World supplied me with the final piece of the puzzle, diet! Not a diet (eat nothing but cabbage soup and a slice of cheese when you start to faint) - no - a balanced diet.

I work in the construction industry where real men eat real food (burgers, pints and chips) and "exercise is the only way you will lose weight"!!!! The idea that you should take care about what you put into your stomach was almost alien to me and the men I worked with.

As I said at the start I joined with my friends

Rainy and Liz. We soon joined the group's facebook page and started collecting and swapping ideas and supportive messages. The support from our rapidly increasing group was a great boost for me. I found the competition fun as well, who had lost the most, who had the best new recipe. I also found the groups really inspiring feeding from others experiences and knowing that you are not alone with the challenges that faced you in the week.

And guess what? I am still eating burgers and chips and enjoying my pints because I've learnt how to cook differently and to incorporate the things I love.

I'm now a Target member at my group in Honiton which means I can still attend, but free of charge - LOVE IT

Lindy Parry
Podiatrist / Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

You will no doubt be surrounded by wonderful advice, about what to do, and how to do it to have a perfect Christmas, but if all you want to get through this time of year, without feeling angry or overwhelmed or just be able to lift the weight of the depression that seems ready to overtake at any moment. New You

What's your New Year's resolution?

Val Davis Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other nagging problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

BIN OR KEEP? THE 2016 WELLBEING TRENDS WE WANT TO STICK AROUND

by Abi Jackson, Press Association

WATERMELON - We all carried a watermelon in 2016. Well, those of us who got in on the emerging watermelon juice/water trend did. Yep, move over coconut water (not completely - you're still in pretty high demand), watermelon quenched our thirst and then some this year, topping up our vitamin and potassium levels and aiding in muscle recovery (thanks to its L-citrulline contents) in the process.

VERDICT: Keep. It's tasty, simple and a refreshing (no pun intended) addition to the, arguably over-saturated, 'healthy drinks' market.

HYGGE - OK, the fact snuggling up somewhere cosy and candlelit, with a soothing hot chocolate or glass of red, makes us feel good is hardly groundbreaking. But it was only this year we officially found a name for the cosy good life's happiness-inducing magic: Hygge. It's always been a way of life for the Danes, and this autumn saw it snuggle into our everyday vocabulary too.

VERDICT: Keep! Simple, feel-good and basically achievable every day. What's not to love?

SEAWEED - First came 'courgetti', and then 2016 saw an incoming tide of seaweed 'pasta'. There's a lot going for it: it's sustainable, easy to farm, highly nutritious, gluten-free and low-cal - if a tad salty.

VERDICT: Keep - BUT it's currently too expensive to make it onto our regular shopping lists (expect to pay almost £6 for a 100g bag, while you can easily get a 500g bag of real pasta for £1).

FLAVOURED NUT BUTTER - The nut butter aisles got a LOT more interesting this year, with palm oil-free brands like Pip and Nut bringing us delights such as Honey Cinnamon Cashew Butter and Coconut Almond Butter. Omega-3 and protein-packed goodness and added flavour.

VERDICT: Keep! And Pip & Nut have just announced they're launching 1KG tubs... Happy New Year!

CLEAN EATING - Nobody's really sure what it means... Is it just healthy, proper food all made from scratch, no additives etc?! But, haven't people been doing that for, um, ever? And does it only count as 'clean eating' if you post it on social media? Maybe we're missing something but, either way, it's smug, and ain't nothing wrong with a good 'ol dirty burger every once in a while.

VERDICT: Bin. #PleaseStop

WAIST TRAINING - The Kardashians could post selfies of themselves drenched in cow dung and somebody (read: many) would give it a go, so of course, when they start posting snaps of themselves sporting waist trainers - basically super-tight corsets - and even working out with them on, cue a flurry of copycat attempts to get 'waisted'.

VERDICTS: Bin. Sticking the word 'trainer' in the title doesn't change what it is. A corset doesn't promote fat loss or muscle tone. It just squashes you (and your organs).

SAUNA SUITS - Always thought the priority with fitness attire was to keep you cool and comfortable during those sweaty workouts? Khloe Kardashian took the opposite approach this summer however, when she shared snaps of herself working out in a 'sauna suit'. The clue's in the name: these 'sweat suits', as they're also known, are designed to make you heat up and perspire more.

VERDICT: Bin. Anything that perpetuates the idea it's OK to do daft things in a bid to lose weight fast is just not good. Plus apparently, it's just promoting water loss, which isn't the same as fat loss.

Axminster Health & Wellbeing

Therapy of the Month Reflexology with Barbara Bell

REFLEXOLOGY is an ancient healing therapy, derived from Eastern philosophy, which focuses on stimulating "reflex points" on the feet (or hands).

The rationale for the efficacy of reflexology is believed to be the result of stimulation of the circulatory, lymphatic, and nervous and energy systems which connect throughout the body and which are in a constant state of communication.

The holistic nature of reflexology lends itself to help treat a wide and diverse range of disorders ranging from emotional stress to muscle and structural pain.

Precision Reflexology is a unique, gentle form of reflexology. In addition to massage and stimulation of specific points it uses a linking technique where two or more reflex points can be linked together increasing the power and holistic nature of the treatment.

Reflexology is suitable for people of all ages and there are very few contraindications. Only shoes and socks need be removed and the client lies in a special reclining chair for a deeply relaxing experience.

SEALING THE ENERGY LEAKS THAT LEAVE YOU DEPLETED

EVER feel like a bucket with holes in?

That is literally the condition most of us are in, one minute we feel good next minute we feel drained unable to get on with the things that are important to us living a good life or creating a better life.

Learning to manage your energy and knowing exactly how it is you are losing it will be one of the most empowering things you can do for yourself, your life, your health and for those around you because without a healthy vibrant energy system simply nothing works for us.

Our capacity to hold onto this precious life force has become severely weakened and quite honestly misused on a daily basis which is not only detrimental to our health but also to living a whole hearted life that we are each destined to live.

We lose our energy through many different sources every single day, learning how you lose yours and how to call it back and seal it in will create a renewed strength and sense of power within you that you may never have thought you could have.

Every day in any given moment your energy can change, you know this, so becoming educated and learning a good daily energy hygiene management system is vital to living in this human body in this Earthly environment.

To learn more about this and to receive a full energy assessment and treatment call Melanie on 07715952896.

West of England Laser Centre

IS YOUR SKIN GIVING YOUR AGE AWAY?

AS THE skin ages, it loses its elasticity and, as a result, can develop fine lines and creases; cheeks start to look 'hollow' and lips lose their 'fullness' and definition. These can be helped by injection treatments, dermal fillers create definition and add volume to the skin and have an instant effect. Other injection treatments offered by the West of England Laser Centre include muscle relaxants, which injected in tiny purified doses, relax the small facial muscles beneath the skin thereby softening and diminishing the appearance of lines and wrinkles.

The West of England Laser Centre also hold regular laser treatment sessions at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital. Laser treatments offer an extremely precise form of treatment for thread veins, unwanted tattoos, hair removal, moles and warts and skin pigmentation. Our website at www.welc.co.uk provides details on all our treatments. For further information or to book a consultation please telephone 01823 331773 or e-mail us at lasercentre@lineone.net.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Stylish new development helps couple escape the rat race

AFTER ESCAPING the rat race, David and Wendy Nelson have finally found their dream home in Axminster thanks to a stress-busting part exchange scheme and a stylish new development in the town.

Moving across the country from their home in Gatwick, the couple had a stop-gap property in Shillingstone in Dorset, before finding out about Bovis Homes' Cloakham Lawns location.

"We had a holiday home nearby and have always loved this area – it's just stunning," says Wendy. "We wanted a change in lifestyle and there is just so much to do in and around Axminster, as well as lovely views wherever you look!"

David, who works part-time fitting black box devices in cars, and Wendy, who is now retired, initially moved into the three-bedroom Sheringham. But not long after moving, the couple decided to take advantage of Bovis Homes part exchange scheme and up-sized into the bigger four-bedroom Canterbury.

"We really liked the location, but wanted more space," explains Wendy. "The process was really simple and Yasmine, the sales advisor, was fantastic and talked us through how it worked."

The Home Exchange scheme takes the stress and hassle out of selling up and moving home, as Bovis Homes buy the purchasers' existing property. It ensures a new Bovis Home is secured without costly estate agent fees and property chains and the scheme also allows buyers to stay in their existing house until their new home is ready.

"I just fell in love with the Canterbury," says Wendy. "It has such a good flow and just completely suits us. There's lots of storage and we've got space if the family want to come and stay."

The four-bedroom home has a large kitchen and dining area with French doors out into the garden. Upstairs there is a family bathroom as well as a built-in wardrobe and en-suite to the master bedroom.

"The sales team could not have been more helpful. Yasmine was excellent at her job and we couldn't fault her," continues Wendy. "The care and attention from the team was fantastic. Nothing was too much trouble for them and they would do everything they could to help. They were just so caring."

Situated on the edge of Axminster, Cloakham Lawns provides a mix of two, three, four and five-bedroom homes. With all the homes built to a traditional standard, the popular location has welcomed many residents over the past two years.

"Overall, it has been fantastic – the sales team were great and we just love the house. We would definitely recommend Bovis Homes to anyone," says Wendy.

Prizewinners on Parade

THE FIRST exhibition of the year at Ilminster Arts Centre celebrates the success of the artists who were the prizewinners of the Ilminster Open Competition in 2016. As part of their prize, the artists won the chance to exhibit at the Arts Centre and now their moment in the spotlight has arrived. "We are thrilled to welcome back all the winning artists" says exhibition co-ordinator Ann Palmer, "and to see what they've been working on since August".

Heading the bill is the overall winner Jane Burden, a West Dorset based artist whose mixed media textile and ceramic pieces pack a powerful emotional punch. Her site specific commissions and exhibitions have taken her all over England and her return to Ilminster Arts Centre is keenly anticipated. Former ad-man Peter Monkcom won second prize jointly with Charo Ritchie and both artists will be showing their latest work. Peter (who in his earlier career created the legendary 'Captain Birdseye' of fishfinger fame) uses found objects to construct witty 'assemblages'. Charo is a botanical illustrator who captures the natural world in painstaking watercolour detail. Sue Smallwood, the winner of the 3D prize will also be showing her new pieces - her enigmatic ceramic sculpture 'Jani' was one of the talking points of the 2016 Open. West Somerset based artist Leo Davey won the highly coveted 'Visitors' Choice' award and his highly accomplished evocative paintings will once again grace the Arts Centre's walls.

The eclectic and varied line-up is completed by the three Highly Commended prizewinners: wildlife painter Sue Allen, mixed media artist Imogen Bittner and environmental painter Gary Cook, whose work fuses traditional painting and hard-hitting graphics.

The show opens on January 3rd, running until the 21st, and will be a welcome opportunity to revisit and explore in depth the work of a talented and diverse group of local artists. The exhibition is open 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday, and 9.30am-2.30pm Saturdays. Free entry.

Jazz on the twelfth night

THE FIRST concert of the year at Ilminster Arts Centre takes place on Twelfth Night, and promises to get 2017 off to a vintage start, with the return of jazz pianist Mike Denham on Friday, January 6th. Mike is a hugely popular performer at the Arts Centre and this concert will take the form of one of his entertaining 'SpeakEasy' nights of vintage jazz.

Joining Mike for this journey back in jazz time is clarinetist Mike Snelling. Weymouth-born Mike took up clarinet at the tender age of 10 and he has been a fixture on the UK traditional jazz scene for many years, originally playing with Alex Welsh, and latterly with Chris Barber between 2006-9. Over the years he has worked alongside many of the world's finest players, including Michael Andrew, "Peanuts" Hucko, Ralph Sutton, Bud Freeman, Buddy Tate, Bob Wilbur and Kenny Davern. Together the two Mikes will entertain the Arts Centre audience with a foot tapping, nostalgia soaked trip through the jazz classics of yesterday.

Mike Denham is one of the most popular performers at the Arts Centre, and his concerts generally play to a full house. A brilliant pianist, Mike has a profound and enduring love of early jazz, and his trademark repartee is studded with an array of amusing but informative anecdotes about the world of jazz. Mike's repertoire ranges across American jazz from the early 20th century through to 50s Rock and Roll. He plays classic rags by Scott Joplin, the blues and stomps of Jelly Roll Morton and Fats Waller, and popular songs by George Gershwin and Irving Berlin, as well as eight-to-the bar boogie and blues from Meade Lux Lewis and Albert Ammons through to the somewhat more up-to-date "Fats" Domino.

This will be an evening of music from the golden age of jazz played by two masterful musicians. Advance booking is strongly recommended.

Mike Denham's SpeakEasy comes to Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, January 6th at 8pm. Tickets are £12, and a pre-show supper is available for £14 at 7pm but must be pre-booked. For more details and to book call 01460 54973 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Fifty years on, legendary folk duo release their first album

IT'S BEEN 50 years since Wizz Jones invited Ralph McTell to Cornwall to play with him at the now legendary Folk Cottage. Now, half a century later, the duo have recorded their first album together, and will play live at The Beehive on Friday, February 10th at 7.30pm.

Ralph McTell recalls:- "April 1966 and I was just back from living in Paris and playing the streets in the Latin Quarter. I was playing at a coffee bar called 'Under the Olive Tree' in Croydon when Wizz invited me to come and play guitar with him in Newquay, Cornwall. Wizz was already a legend and I would have walked to Cornwall for the opportunity."

"It was a life-changing move for me. It was one of the most wonderful summers I have spent, playing with Wizz. We have become life-long friends. We have played on each other's albums and recordings many times in many places. We always talked about making a whole album, and then we did - 'About Time', 50 years on!"

Wizz Jones continues:- "In the spring of 2015 I got a phone call from my long-time friend Ralph McTell. 'We should do an album together sometime', he suggested. 'When?' I asked. 'How about now?' came the reply. A couple of weeks later I once again drove westward, as I had done a thousand time before, to what I like to call my spiritual home of Cornwall."

"It was a wonderful opportunity to re-live our busking days together and remember those glorious summers of the 1960s, playing at the now-legendary 'Folk Cottage' in Mitchell. I spent a couple of days in John's studio, putting down a few tracks - mostly old favourites - and all too soon I had to return to my actual home in South London. So here's the result - back to the roots for two Croydon boys who only ever wanted to be Woody Guthrie or Jack Kerouac."

This is a rare and truly unmissable chance to hear these two master performers together, singing and playing a wide range of tunes and songs. Book now!

Ralph McTell and Wizz Jones play at the Beehive, Honiton on Friday, February 10th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £20 (seated) available by calling 01404 384050 or from beehivehoniton.co.uk.

Wille and the Bandits ride into Honiton

HAVING toured their unique brand of roots rock with the likes of Deep Purple, Joe Bonamassa, The John Butler Trio and Status Quo, Wille and the Bandits are currently touring Germany prior to launching their new album Steal in January.

The band are famous for creating an astonishingly huge sound, incorporating eclectic grooves from World music to Heavy Rock, using bizarre instrumentation such as Tongue Drum, Djembe, Lap steel guitar and Double bass they push the boundaries of what is expected of a modern three piece. Although difficult to pigeon hole, Wille and the Bandits are taking roots rock music to a new level.

Wille and the Bandits are renowned for their diverse songwriting and often likened to the greats of the 70's such as Led Zeppelin, Santana and Pink Floyd, this comparison, although bold, only scrapes the surface of the Bands influences and sound.

Wille and the Bandits are on a journey which has so far been miraculous. All achieved through hard work and a true passion for making music. Playing over 200 shows a year these guys are really tight. So please do not miss the opportunity to see one of the most impressive live acts of this generation.

Wille and the Bandits play at the Beehive, Honiton on Saturday, January 17th, at 8pm.

Tickets: £10 in advance, £12 on the door (Standing with some seating available).

OUR NEW SHOWBIZ COLUMN

150 pro shows, 50 celebs, 30 amateur performances, and one year of theatre fun

WITH the end of 2016 fast approaching, I thought it would be fitting to appraise my adventures in theatreland over the last 12 months. It's been an epic year, as I've visited over 30 amateur shows and around 150 different professional productions. I've revisited some of my favourite long running musicals, including Wicked (which I watched eight times), Kinky Boots (five times) and The Phantom of the Opera (just twice!).

I have also met and interviewed around 50 celebrities of varying degrees of fame including Sir Ian McKellen (intelligent and imposing), Catherine Tate (frosty), David Haselhoff (bizarre) and one of my musical theatre idols, Ruthie Henshall, who was an absolute delight. The highlight however, was when I got to have coffee with some of the real Calendar Girls, who were promoting a new musical based on their story, which has been written by Gary Barlow and Tim Firth and will open in the West End early next year. I was taken with how passionate they are about the charity they set up over 18 years ago to raise money for victims of blood cancer and their families- truly inspirational.

I also caught some new shows including Harry Potter and the Cursed Child (awesome, but I had a nap), Dreamgirls (superb), Half a Sixpence (glorious) and Aladdin (heart-warming) plus a few, which have already been and gone like Groundhog Day, Guys and Dolls, Funny Girl, and Mrs. Henderson Presents.

I've seen straight plays, comedies, circus, one man shows, two handers, Shakespeare and some fully staged extravaganzas, but I have to say it's still the musicals, which are my real source of joy, with shows like Kinky Boots, The Book of Mormon and Mamma Mia!, always worth a visit if you are feeling low.

If I had to choose my favourite, it is still Wicked however; the musical which follows the witches of OZ and offers everything I want from a night out at the theatre. I'll be sneaking along to the Apollo Victoria theatre to see it next week for the 21st time!

From the plethora of local talent I have been very fortunate to witness this year I would have to choose Colyton Theatre Group's Cinderella as my top production; hilariously funny, well directed and not too self-indulgent (something which is often an issue with non-professional shows).

2017 will offer another theatrical feast for audiences in the local area, with both Lyme Regis Pantomime Society and Axminster Drama Club presenting their takes on Robinson Crusoe at the beginning of the year. Cudos in Crewkerne are promising an extravaganza with their pantomime Rapunzel and the Membury Merry-makers are putting on Pandora's Box The Pantomime in their village hall. Other highlights will include Bridport Musical Theatre Company's Showstoppers, Axminster Musical Theatre's Magic of the Musicals, Lyme Regis Musical Theatre's presentation of the classic musical comedy Thor- oughly Modern Millie and Axminster Drama Club Youth's production of the heartbreaking Blood Brothers in July.

In London, there are hundreds of Off-West Shows, which are set to be big hits next year including The Wild Party at The Other Palace (which stars my dear friend and Tony Award winner Frances Ruffelle), Stephen Sondheim's Frogs at the Jermyn Street Theatre and Burt Bacharach's Promises, Promises at Southwark Playhouse. The big West End openings include The Girls, Follies, An American in Paris, 42nd Street and Stepping Out, which boasts an all-star cast including Amanda Holden and Tamsin Outhwaite (I watched the play when it was on tour and I wasn't impressed!). The biggest opening of the year however, will be Hamilton at the Victoria Palace; an American musical, which has taken the world by storm and promises to be the West End's hot ticket next Christmas.

I've still got a couple more shows to fit in before the end of the year with the cult musical Rent and the David Bowie musical Lazarus on my schedule.

With so many shows to see next year, I'm not sure how I will find the time. Well, that's not really true, as my theatre addiction will ensure I fill as many of the 525600 minutes (it's a lyric from Rent!) of 2017 with theatre as I can.

SEAT launches 'Beautifully Created Winter Drive' campaign

WITH last-minute Christmas present-buying in full swing, SEAT is offering bags full of festive cheer to British new car buyers with the launch of its latest marketing campaign, giving £1,000 off its entire range.

The latest promotion from the Barcelona-based brand entitled 'Beautifully Created Winter Drive', is available on all new SEAT car retail purchases, with £1,000 (including VAT) off all new SEATs ordered between 21 December 2016 and 23 January 2017. Incredibly, the offer even covers the in-demand Ateca compact SUV and New Leon range. The promotion also comes on top of all other existing national retail offers.

Based on its Technology to Enjoy ethos and a desire to make the buying process as easy and straightforward as possible, prospective buyers simply need to visit www.seat.co.uk to download the instant festive voucher, or, be able to show it on an electronic device, to redeem it in showrooms.

Commenting on the incentive, Steve Catlin, Head of Sales, SEAT UK, said, "SEAT's had a great end to the year, with plenty of car awards, impressive Ateca sales, not to mention great media reaction to the New Leon. So, in the spirit of giving, I'm sure our new offer will tempt plenty of off- and online Christmas shoppers and New Year sale bargain-hunters into our showrooms over the next few weeks. And that's even before we look ahead to some gifts of our own in the early part of the year, namely, New Leon in February and the exciting new Leon CUPRA 300 range, including the four-wheel-drive estate, in March."

Vehicles must be registered and handed over between 1 January and 31 March 2017. Full terms and conditions for the SEAT UK 'Beautifully Created Winter Drive' campaign are available at www.seat.co.uk.

MILLWEY Rise FC supporters are clearly pleased with their new covered viewing area at their Cloakham Lawns home as eloquently described below by stalwart supporter Dick Sturch...

The New Tea Hut Terrace

We're very pleased we can proclaim
For those of you who did complain.
Our Tea Hut Terrace has grown in size
So you can stand and cheer the "Rise"
With far more space than ever been.
There's even a rail on which to lean.
And if your tea or coffee's hot
There's also room to stand your cup.
Now when it rains we'll all stay dry.
Unless there's more than 30 try.
In that case then we're very sorry
And still advise you bring a brolly.
So come along watch Millwey play
As unlike some, you won't have to pay.

Festive fun from Millwey Rise

Wallis lifts Ronnie Pew Knock out cup

HEAVY overnight rain prevented the Tuesday mixed golfers from playing their 'Bring and Win' Greensome.

The event was moved indoors and a Christmas Drive – similar to a Beetle Drive – was held instead. Everyone went home with a prize but the winners, Liz Wood and John Northover, got first pick from the table full of goodies.

A fun competition was on offer for the ladies this week, a 3BBB with two scores to count, over 14 holes.

Mild, but with a chilly wind meant that scoring was pretty good. Ann Trayling, Stephani Barnes & Susan Hyde came out on top with their 53 points.

Runners-Up with 52 points were Anne Davies, Sue Kelson & Catherine Hunt. There were also hidden prizes for the best points score on any hole, with two teams achieving seven points.

On Friday more than 60 Seniors played the third round of their winter Eclectic which was coupled with an individual Stableford competition.

The continuing good weather allowed them to play off grass tees and onto proper greens yet again. Good scores were the order of the day and Roger Matthews came out on top of Division One with 38 points – beating Stan Squire on count-back.

In third was Alan Devenny on 37 with John Fleetwood edging out Max Pipe on count-back with 36.

Division Two was won by Eric Short with 38pts followed by Peter Blake on 37 ahead of Phil Wall, again on count-back.

John Pawley was next, ahead of Mike Delaney on count-back with their 35.

Four players received 10 balls each for their two's; Steve Butcher and Roger Matthews on the second, Stan Squire on the fourth and Peter Blake on the 12th.

Senior Captain Alan Pollock then welcomed Ann Pew, the widow of Ronnie, to the Club to present the Ronnie Pew Knockout Cup to this year's winner Jim Wallis.

Ronnie, who died earlier this year aged 101, was a great character of Honiton Golf Club and is greatly missed by all.

Whisky bottles, as Ronnie wished, were given to both the finalists and the runners-up.

◆ PLEASED TO HELP: Russell Rowe (Devon Freewheelers), Julian Phillips (Captain), Jane Watts (Lady Captain), Jade Retter (Devon Freewheelers)

Ann spoke briefly to the gathered Seniors of Ronnie, and then Jim thanked her and spoke of his, and many others members, friendship with Ronnie.

Devon Freewheelers benefit from generous members

THE evening of the Club Christmas Draw provided a perfect opportunity for Club Captain Julian Phillips and Lady Captain Jane Watts to total up all the monies collected for their joint charity.

The Devon Freewheelers were to benefit from the many and varied events held by the club through the year held by the Ladies, Seniors and Mens sections.

Julian and Jane were pleased to present a cheque for the sum of £8332.65 to the representatives of the local based charity who, staffed by volunteers provide a free out of hours courier service to the NHS in and around Devon.

This sum even managed to beat last year's total which went to the Baton local charity, and all those who contributed should be congratulated.

Adrian Cave then held his draw for golfing goods before the main draw was made by organisers Phil and DI Wall.

They will shortly be starting the process of selling tickets for next year's draw and were widely praised for their hard work – this year producing more than 120 prizes.
